SELECT ARTICLES FOR INVALIDS & CHILDREN

SOLD BY

BEWLEY & DRAPER,

Chemists to the Queen by Special Appointment,
MARY STREET, DUBLIN.

Genuine Bermuda Arrowroot,

IMPORTED BY

BEWLEY & DRAPER.

This article, which is extremely difficult to obtain pure, is of a very superior quality. It forms a most wholesome, nutritious, and agreeable aliment, superior to Sago or Tapioca, and is particularly recommended for Children and Invalids.

Tous les Mois.

A new, light, and nutritious aliment ; prepared from the pith of the roots of the Canna Coccinea, which flowers every month, hence the French term, "TOUS LES MOIS."

It is highly approved of by Drs. Johnson, Ryan and Waterson. Dr. Waterson says of it, "My own experience makes me satisfied that it is a most nutritious diet, easily digested, and is consequently invaluable for infants and children, and eminently adapted for persons of dysenteric, diarrhoeal, and consumptive habits ; because there is, in my belief, less acid in it than any other farinaceous food with which I am acquainted. I have never known it to turn acid on the stomach."

Nelson's Patent Opaque Gelatine.

For Jellies, Blanc-mange, Soups, Gravies, &c. This article will be found the most economical yet used for the above and similar purposes ; it possesses all the nutriment without the impurities of CALVES' FEET ; is equal in purity and superior in strength to the finest Isinglass, and ONLY HALF the price.

Lichen Islandicus, or Iceland Moss.

This Lichen has been used with advantage in cases of Cough, Consumption, and Pectoral Affections.

One ounce to be macerated in a quart of boiling water for two hours—then boil for half an hour, and strain. It may be flavoured with Sugar and Lemon-peel according to pleasure.

Bewley & Draper's Iceland Moss Jelly.

Possessing all the valuable properties of the Moss in a HIGHLY CONCENTRATED STATE, it is the most agreeable form in which the Moss can be administered, being as palatable as most of the fruit jellies, and is strongly recommended to persons labouring under chronic affections of the chest and lungs.

Concentrated Syrup of Iceland Moss.

This preparation possesses all the properties of the Iceland Lichen. It allays tickling Cough, relieves oppressed breathing, and is found eminently serviceable in Consumption and Pulmonary Complaints.

Syrup of Smilax and Hippo.

This efficacious and agreeable COUGH MEDICINE is highly beneficial in soothing irritative recent Cough, relieving the Chest, and removing hoarseness. It is recommended as a pleasant and valuable remedy in Chest Affections.

Robinson's Patent Groats and Barley.

For making Gruel and BARLEY WATER, &c., in ten minutes.

Hard's Farinaceous Food.

Particularly recommended for Infants and Persons of Impaired Digestion.

Bewley & Draper's Essence of Rennet.

This very wholesome preparation is recommended to families for making WHEY or JUNKET in an economical and ready manner. It is warranted to keep, and obviates the necessity of having recourse to the Rennet-bag.

Irish Moss, or Carrageen.

Used in cases of Consumption, Asthma, Coughs, &c. Also for making Jelly and Blanc-mange.

Bewley & Draper's Fluid Extract of Dandelion, or Taraxacum.

This preparation possesses in an eminent degree the Tonic or Alterative properties of the Taraxacum. Its use is attended with much advantage in Dyspepsia and other diseases arising from derangement or torpor of the Liver accompanied by a deficiency of Biliary Secretion.

Bewley & Draper's Dandelion Coffee. Semolina, Tapioca, Sago, Finest Isinglass. Prepared Calves' Teats.

B. & D.'s Improved Instruments for Drawing the Breasts; Feeding Bottles for Children, with Softened Ivory, Cork, or India Rubber Teats; Nipple Shields and Breast Glasses of every kind; India Rubber and Ivory Rings for Children Teething.

B. & D.'s Domestic Instruments on the Newest and most approved Principles.

BEWLEY & DRAPER'S
TROTTER OIL,
FOR THE HAIR.

This Article, as prepared by the Proprietors, continues to maintain its reputation as the most perfect Hair Oil yet offered to the Public.

BEWLEY & DRAPER'S
COLD CREAM OF ROSES.

BEWLEY & DRAPER'S
GLYCERINE CREAM,
Preserving all the advantages of Cold Cream combined with the well-known beneficial properties of Glycerine.

BEWLEY & DRAPER'S
SHAVING PASTE.
The best known preparation for Shaving.

BEWLEY & DRAPER'S
PERFUMED VINEGAR,
FOR THE TOILET.
Possesses the agreeable odour of Eau de Cologne, combined with the refreshing and invigorating qualities of Vinegar. It whitens and softens the skin, removes irritation, and is excellent as a mouth-wash. It is most valuable for sponging the surface of the body when feverish.

BEWLEY & DRAPER'S
QUININE DENTIFRICE,
Combining the active principle of Peruvian Bark with the most beneficial Detergents and Aromatics.

GREASE STAINS REMOVED, AND GLOVES AND SILKS CLEANED WITHOUT SMELL.

EUPIONE.

It removes all spots produced by greasy substances, such as oil, butter, suet, pitch, tallow, paint, grease on furniture or clothes, on all kinds of silks, satins, ribbons, furs, velvets, or other fabrics, and it improves their lustre without injuring the most delicate colour. The smell, which is not in the least disagreeable, disappears in a few minutes without leaving any traces. Eupione is also used for cleaning gloves, without changing the colour, to dilute colours mixed with oil, to wash Painters' brushes, and to remove all spots from paper. Eupione removes all grease spots from drawings, plans, and precious papers. It may be kept for years without losing its good qualities.

DIRECTIONS FOR USE.

Place a piece of linen of several folds on a table, to act as a sponge in absorbing the Eupione as it penetrates, then stretch the article greased on the linen, taking care to remove any dust; then take a piece of cotton or flannel, dip it into the Eupione, and in the first place saturate the article well all round the grease spot, to prevent the grease from spreading; then rub the spot with the liquid, drying with blotting paper or fine linen, and moving about the linen underneath. The Eupione ought to be applied in a circular direction, and care must be taken not to leave off until the liquid evaporates; then expose the article to a good current of air. It is not necessary to unstitch the seams to remove any spots.

To Clean Kid Gloves.

Stretch the glove on a clean piece of paper or a wooden hand, and rub it with a piece of linen saturated with the Eupione. The dirt disappears instantly; expose the glove to the air, to remove the odour. Some gloves retain the smell longer than others, but exposure to the air, or before the fire, will not fail to carry it off.

The application of Eupione to the cleaning of gloves is one of the most economical uses to which it has been applied, as gloves of any colour can be cleaned an unlimited number of times, until they are entirely worn out, and will retain to the last the appearance of new gloves.

To remove Spots of Grease from Drawings, Plans, and other Valuable Papers.

Place some Blotting Paper under the Picture, then saturate the Cotton with some of the Liquid, hold it on the greasy spot for a minute, and dry up with Blotting Paper. With a fresh piece of saturated Cotton rub slightly in circles until the liquid evaporates.

It is important to know that the Eupione has no action on Silks or Colours. It dissolves Wax and Greasy Bodies, and therefore can be applied without danger to precious papers, &c.

N.B.—One great advantage which Eupione possesses over Benzine, and all other fluids used for the same purpose, is its FREEDOM FROM UNPLEASANT SMELL.

MEDICATED LOZENGES,

PREPARED AND SOLD BY

BEWLEY & DRAPER,

CHEMISTS TO THE QUEEN BY SPECIAL APPOINTMENT,

MARY STREET, DUBLIN.

The Antacid or Absorbent Stomach Lozenge.—For Acidity, Heartburn, and Weakness of the Stomach. Being of an antacid and carminative nature, it absorbs and corrects the acid which is formed in the Stomach, removes Flatulence, and its various attendant symptoms, as Sick Head-Ache, Nervous Irritability, Palpitations, Irregular State of the Bowels, Gout, &c.—Price 1s. per Box.

Bewley & Draper's Cough Lozenge.—Combining the virtues of Hippo with other articles of demulcent and expectorant qualities, most esteemed in affections of the Chest. It is considered by many as a most useful and agreeable remedy.

These Lozenges are most effective in ordinary cases of Cough; they allay the troublesome irritation which provokes coughing, remove coagulated phlegm, and relieve the Chest. They are pleasantly acidulated, are of a peculiarly agreeable flavour, and are greatly superior to the simple Hippo Lozenge.—Price 1s. per Box.

B. & D.'s Sore Throat Lozenges.—Prepared from Ingredients highly approved and much esteemed in affections of the Throat and Chest. These Lozenges are peculiarly applicable for persons subject to Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Relaxation of the Uvula and parts contiguous, removing the troublesome tickling sensation which often accompanies cold, and thereby mitigating the vehemence of coughing. They will also be found useful as a protection from the effects of damp, fogs, &c. To Singers and Public Speakers they will prove a grateful and effectual stimulus.—Price 1s. per Box.

Anodyne Lettuce Lozenges.—For Chronic and Nervous Cough, Consumption, and Asthma.—Price 1s. per Box.—Lactucarium, which is the inspissated juice of the Garden Lettuce, has been strongly recommended by Dr. Duncan, of Edinburgh, and others, as possessing peculiarly soothing and quieting powers in Consumption and Asthma.

A Lozenge may be allowed to dissolve gradually in the mouth, and repeated every two or three hours, or whenever the cough is troublesome.

Acidulated Cayenne Lozenges.—An excellent remedy for Sore Throat and Hoarseness arising from relaxation, weakness, or cold. They are also a grateful stimulus during fatigue.

Black Currant Lozenges.—Useful and agreeable for Inflammatory Sore Throat.

Camphor Lozenges.—For Nervous Affections, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterical and Fainting Fits.—They are used also as a preventative against contagion.

Carminative Ginger Lozenges.—For relieving Flatulence, Cramps, Spasms, or sudden acute pains in the Stomach or Bowels.

Carminative Peppermint Lozenges.—These Lozenges are used for a similar purpose, and being prepared with the best Oil of Peppermint, are a most useful Carminative in Stomach Complaints.—Price 1s. per Box.

Hippo, or Ipecacuanha Lozenges.—A useful demulcent and expectorant for recent Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, and Hooping Cough.—Price 1s.

Bath Lozenges.—These Lozenges are composed of Gum Arabic, Liquorice, and other Pectoral Ingredients, and are highly esteemed in cases of ordinary Coughs.

Tolu Lozenges.—Possess expectorant properties, and are useful in Chest Affections.

Hippo and Squill Lozenges.—The advantages of these Lozenges consist in their promoting copious excretions from the vessels of the Lungs, thereby unloading these organs of mucus and phlegm, and relieving difficulty of Breathing. They are therefore peculiarly applicable in Asthma, obstinate Coughs, Hooping Cough, and Consumption.—Price 1s. per Box.

The BEST Black Ink Known !

DRAPER'S INK, (DICHROÏC.)

THE black inks hitherto in use have been of two kinds : one in which a coloured precipitate is suspended by means of gum in a liquid ; the other, in which the colouring matter is held in solution. Ink of the first kind is always disagreeable to use, as it does not flow freely from the pen, and becomes more or less thick, and deposits in the inkstand. Inks in which the colouring matter is held in solution are nearly free from both these faults, but while they are sufficiently fluid and form but little deposit, they are open to the objection of corroding steel pens. They are also of a pale greenish-blue colour, not contrasting well with the paper, and the tint does not darken for a considerable time.

An ink which should combine the advantages of both kinds of writing fluid, which, while of an intensely dark colour as it leaves the pen, and becoming almost instantly deep black, should be without action on steel pens, and retain its fluidity unimpaired, has always been a desideratum.

Such an ink is now, after much care and attention devoted to the subject of writing fluids, and after much experimental investigation, for the first time offered to the public. It is confidently believed that the new ink, which, if not absolutely perfect, is at least incomparably superior to any other, will obtain general approval.

The following advantages are claimed for DRAPER'S INK, (DICHROÏC.)

It writes almost instantly FULL
BLACK.
Does not corrode Steel Pens.
Dries rapidly on the Paper.
Is cleanly to use and not liable to blot.
Flows easily from the Pen.

Is quite free from Greasiness
Blotting paper may be applied at the moment of writing.
Resists the action of water and dilute acids.

In Jars, 6d., 1s., and 2s each, may be obtained from all respectable Stationers, Chemists, and Druggists, and General Dealers throughout the Kingdom,
